Calling Cardinia Lakes home

Australia Day will have special meaning for Macedonian-born entrepreneur Venera Malceski – she has recently completed her four year permanent residency requirement and is looking forward to making Peet Limited’s popular Cardinia Lakes’ community home.

One of more than 80 homebuyers at the popular Peet community in the last year, Ms Malceski is now preparing to build her new home, and working towards obtaining her Australian citizenship this year.

Peet Limited Managing Director and CEO Brendan Gore said Cardinia Lakes attracted the attention of homebuyers from the local area, and around the world, including Europe, Africa and Asia.

“Nearly half of all homesites have now sold at Cardinia Lakes and the community is fast becoming a well-established part of the local area,” Mr Gore said.

Ms Malceski moved to Australia to be with partner Zac Malceski, who she met while they were both living in Germany. Zac is an Australian and, when he returned home, Venera chose to join him.

“It’s the place of my dreams,” said Ms Malceski, who explored Melbourne’s suburbs for some time before discovering Pakenham and Cardinia Lakes

“I really like the Pakenham area – it’s different from other suburbs and Cardinia Lakes is beautiful, with the lakes and the parks, and the lovely views.”

Australia has provided Ms Malceski’s entrepreneurial spirit with plenty of room to flourish.

“Everything is possible in Australia – it’s a country full of opportunities,” she said.

“I started up an Australian-based business three years ago, importing Macedonian wines, soft drinks and other beverages, and it’s been going well.”

Homebuyers interested in joining the Cardinia Lakes community can phone (03) 5941 3466 or visit the Sales Office on Huron Parkway (off Princess Highway and Windermere Boulevard) in Pakenham between midday and 5pm, Saturday to Wednesday.
